A Home For Christmas

A Christmas Romantic Comedy

Logline

When an unappreciated architect is chosen to have her house renovated on a Christmas reality TV show, she must choose between following her dreams and falling in love.

The Story

Isabella, an unappreciated architect, believes that relationships are supposed to be complicated. But when her three male friends propose to her on the same day, she begins to wonder what she's doing wrong.

Her fortunes change when she wins a spot on the Christmas special of a home renovation show, hosted by her dream man, Ace Fixem. Ace and Isabella hit it off, but there is opposition from Ace's co-host (and ex-wife) and a handsome, kind-hearted heritage carpenter who just wants to preserve the history of her home.

Will Isabella be spending Christmas with the flashy, complicated TV host, or the simple, down-to-earth carpenter?
